

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS WILL ATTEND HORSE SHOW IN NUMBERS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Gerry to Be Guests of the John R. Valentines in Bryn Mawr—Mr. and Mrs. Ames, of Boston, to Attend, Also R. K. Vanderbilt

A NUMBER of persons from other cities will attend the fall Horse show, which will be held at the Bryn Mawr Polo Grounds, on September 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Gerry, of New York, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Valentine, at Bryn Mawr, during the Bryn Mawr Horse Show. Mr. Gerry, who will be one of the judges at the show, is master of the Orange County polo show, in Virginia. He is the donor of a new challenge cup for the horse show here this season.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ames, of Boston, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Reeve, of Haggstone House, Haverford, during the Hound Show. Mr. Ames is a former master of the Orange County polo show, in Virginia. Mr. Oliver County, a brother of Mrs. Ames, is a member of the Royal Aviation Corps of the British Army, and recently received the Commander's Cross from Sir John French, commander of the British expeditionary force in France, for killing three German aviators.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Gibbons-Neff, of 3204 West Park street, will return from Beach Haven the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Winter, of 53 Fisher's lane, are spending the month of September in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith, of 4533 Pulaski avenue, has returned to town from White Sulphur Springs, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goodfellow, of 222 West School lane, have returned to their home from a trip to Lake George.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander Matthews and their small daughter, Miss Phyllis Matthews, of 626 Sherman street, are home from Groton, Long Point, Conn.

Admiral and Mrs. Thomas A. Gill, U. S. N., of 235 Washington lane, Jenkintown, returned to their home last week from an extended tour trip through the Berkshires Hills, White Mountains and New York State. They will shortly occupy their new home at Elkins Park, which they have as their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bondorf, of Wynote, Pa., have left for Stockbridge, Mass., where they will be the guests of friends for several weeks.

Mr. Frank S. Gentry, Mr. Charles E. Schwartz, Mr. Thomas W. Logan, Mr. Joseph W. Hunter, Mr. Samuel L. Schively, Mr. Henry W. Halowell, Mr. Fred H. Ely and Mr. Allen Richardson, all of Jenkintown, spent several days last week on a fishing trip at Forked River, N. J.

Miss Marion Phillips, of North 8th street, Oak Lane, has as her guests Miss Beatrice Cully and Miss Evelyn Macnamara, who will remain until Friday, when they will leave for Atlantic City and stay until November.

Miss Dorothy Young and Miss Eleanor Hess, of Logan, Pa., returned home from Wildwood, where they spent the past fortnight.

Miss Esther C. M. Stule has returned to her apartment at Centre Harbor, N. H.

WAYNE.—Mrs. J. William Shaw has returned to her home on Wayne avenue from a visit to Sagamore Beach, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Whildin, of North Wayne, are taking an extensive trip through the West and to the Panama-Pacific Expositions.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Elliot spent the week at the Spruce Creek, Rod and Gun Club, Huntingdon County, Pa., as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Young, of Altoona, Pa.

DEVON.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Castner, Jr., have been visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Castner, at their cottage in Cape May.

Mr. W. B. Miller, of Highland avenue, has been entertaining Miss Louise R. Elder.

Miss Constance Randall, of Augusta, Me., who has been spending some time in Devon, has gone to Bar Harbor for the balance of the summer.

ARDMORE.—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Boyer and family have returned from England's Mere, Pa., where they spent the summer. Miss Isabel Kosa Boyer, and her sister, Mrs. E. R. Irvine, are home after a month's visit to Ocean City.

Bala-Cynwyd Mr. and Mrs. Calvin G. Child will close their summer home at Vineyard, Mass., about the 20th of this month, when they will return to their home in Hampton Terrace, Bala.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Jackson, of Maple avenue, have returned from a two weeks' camping trip in the Maine woods and a motor trip through the Berkshires.

Chestnut Hill Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Simons, of East Willow Grove avenue, gave a delightful porch dance at their home, on Tuesday night, for a few of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barnshaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Labor Day, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Earle Johnson, at their cottage at Bay Head.

Mr. and Mrs. Reulion Earnshaw, of Montgomery avenue, have returned from Bar Orange, where they went to attend the wedding of Mr. Earnshaw's niece, Miss Marie Earnshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barnshaw, and Mr. E. Smythe, on Saturday, September 4, and Mr. and Mrs. Smythe will live in Newark, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Trotter and Miss Elizabeth Trotter, of Towanda town, will return from Kennebunkport, Me., Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Morgan, of Wyndover, Pa., are motoring through Canada, as expected home about September 15.

Germantown Among those who attended the 7th convocation of the general society of Mayflower descendants held in Plymouth, Pa., on Monday and Tuesday last, were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Welch, Mrs. Thomas W. Ball, Mrs. Maurice W. Tasa.

Mr. Samuel Hazard, of 2103 Stokely street, will leave October 1 for Pasadena, Cal., to spend the winter.

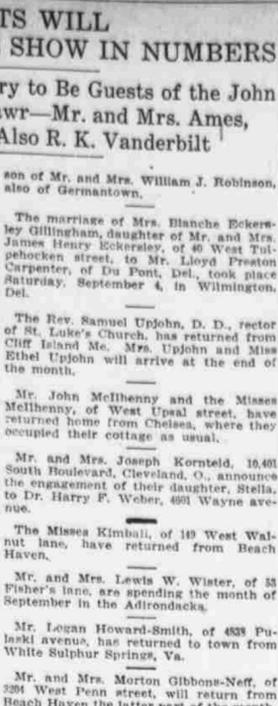

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Henschel, of Broadford road, Mr. A. J. Anderson, the youngest of their daughter, Miss Anne Henschel, to Mr. J. Gorges Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Robinson, also of Germantown.

The marriage of Mrs. Blanche Beckley Gillingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Beckley, of 40 West Tullock street, in Cape May, to Preston Carpenter, of Du Pont, Del., took place Saturday, September 4, in Wilmington, Del.

The Rev. Samuel Upjohn, D. D., rector of St. Luke's Church, has returned from the Island Me. Upjohn and Miss Upjohn will arrive at the end of the month.

Mr. John Melhenny and the Misses Melhenny, of West Upal street, have returned from Chelsea, where they occupied their cottage as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Korntel, 10,403 South Boulevard, Cleveland, O., announce the engagement of their daughter, Stella, to Dr. Harry F. Weber, 4691 Wayne avenue.

MISS PAULINE RUNYON ANDERSON

Daughter of Mr. David Anderson, of Lansdowne. Her engagement to Mr. Allen C. Kane, of Ridley Park, was announced on Saturday

South Philadelphia A surprise party was given Mrs. Pauline Jackel, on the occasion of her 33d birthday anniversary, at her home, 1224 South 11th street, last Tuesday. Among those present were: Mrs. Marquet, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Kilgor, Mrs. Hartfelder, Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Malloy, Miss Edith Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jackel, Mr. Harry Jackel and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Black and son, Matthew, Jr.

Mr. John Boyle, of 8th and Morris streets, has returned after a vacation at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. August Arnold, of 8th and Greenwich streets, are spending their vacation at the Lexington Hotel, Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, of 1722 South 10th street, have returned after spending a vacation at Atlantic City.

Mr. Frank Brennan, of Third and Greenwich streets, spent last week-end at Anglesia.

Mr. M. C. McAnany, of 1431 Christian street, is home again after a protracted stay at Atlantic City.

Mr. Jack Blitting, of 1851 East Berks street, and Miss Anna May Dugan, of 2133 Aramingo street, were married last Monday by the Rev. Dr. Shaw, of the Frankford Avenue Protestant Episcopal Church, Frankford and Allegheny avenues.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Nolan and family have returned to their home, 2559 North Howard street, after a stay at the shore for several weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Morrison, of 2222 North Howard street, and Miss May Fry, of 21 and Dauphin streets, are back in town after a delightful vacation at Wildwood, N. J., and Lake George, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Green, of 2306 North 2d street, have completed their vacation trip to the coast resorts.

Mr. Joseph Longstreet, of 2454 Kensington avenue, has returned to town after an interesting auto trip to Shamokin, Pa.

Mr. Thomas Wiley and family, of 2568 North 2d street, have returned to the city after an enjoyable tour to several Canadian points adjacent to Montreal.

Mr. Frank Dulon entertained a group of his friends Wednesday at his cottage, 27 Lafayette avenue, Atlantic City. An impromptu pinocchle contest was indulged in by Mrs. Dulon, Mr. Robert Miller, Mr. J. J. H. Miller, Mr. J. J. H. Miller, Mr. John Kelly, Mr. Charles Messenger and Mr. Thomas Hickey on the other. The decision of Mr. Bauers' team, Mr. Dulon will return to the city in a week or two.

Mr. Edward Haggert and his mother, Mrs. Anna Haggert, of 317 West Cumberland street, enjoyed a fine two weeks' trip to Scranton, Pa. Mr. Haggert is active in Spanish-American War Veteran circles and is highly thought of in the northeast.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Barcus and family, of 923 North 8th street, have returned from Atlantic City.

Dr. and Mrs. David J. Soltman and son Harold, of 87 North 4th street, are spending some time at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Grossman, of 550 North 2d street, have returned home from Atlantic City, where they have been spending the summer.

A grand autumn carnival at Allegheny avenue and Fracford street, will be held on September 26 to 28, by the Allegheny Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. Ernest Townsend, who spent the summer at Ocean City, has returned to his home, 412 Martin street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Homfeld, of 2122 Market street, returned today from Ocean City, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Ruth McGeever, of 6325 North 21st street, has returned from an extended stay in Florida, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Foulke and Miss Anna L. Foulke, of West Tullock street, are motoring through the White Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Coffin, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Hazel Coffin, and their son, Mr. Roy Coffin, of 507 Hansberry street, are staying for several weeks at Beach Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Horwitz and their family have returned from Haddon Heights, N. J., to 273 North Gratz street.

Mr. P. H. Altman and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Arndt have returned from Atlantic City to their home, 2208 West Tioga street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Benson, with their son and daughter, Mr. Edward Benson and Miss Marian Benson, have returned to their home on North Park avenue after spending the summer in Ocean City.

Miss Anne S. A. Bourke, of 1104 Highland avenue, has returned home after spending three weeks in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas and their sons, Mr. Joseph Thomas, Jr., and Mr. Dudley Thomas, of Rochelle avenue, will close their cottage at Ocean City during the week and return to Wissahickon.

Miss Lucy Fox, of 283 Rochelle avenue, Wissahickon, will leave, on September 12, for Wilmington, Del., where she will be the guest of Miss Elsie Beck, who will entertain a home party for a week.

MISS PAULINE RUNYON ANDERSON

Daughter of Mr. David Anderson, of Lansdowne. Her engagement to Mr. Allen C. Kane, of Ridley Park, was announced on Saturday

Northeast Philadelphia A Home-gathering Day will be held at the East Montgomery Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church September 19. The exercises will continue through the entire day, under the supervision of the Rev. S. K. McConnell, pastor of the church. The innovation is to rally all of the congregation who have been separated during the vacation periods for the work of the coming fall and winter. The main auditorium will be beautifully decorated under the supervision of the Flowers and Sutton families, of which there are six branches. The various committees are composed of Rev. S. K. McConnell, Mr. Albert Wilson, Mr. Edward Bullinger, Mr. Harry Laupin, Mr. William Rubin, Miss Florence Bullinger, Mr. Thomas Lupken, Miss Beattie Bullinger, Mr. William Flowers, Mr. Roy Vogel, Mr. Thomas McClellan, Mr. John Barlow, Mr. Clarence Bullinger, Mr. Albert Mellor, Mr. William Barnhill, Mr. George Thomas, Jr., Mr. Edward Connor, Mr. Samuel Wilson, Mr. Vernon Jones, Miss Anna Green, Mrs. Cletcher, Mrs. Mollie, Mrs. Galbraith, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. McClurken, Mrs. Collar, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Alice Myers, Miss Edith Pierce, Miss Kathryn Shackey and Miss Elsie Bullinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Nolan and family have returned to their home, 2559 North Howard street, after a stay at the shore for several weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Morrison, of 2222 North Howard street, and Miss May Fry, of 21 and Dauphin streets, are back in town after a delightful vacation at Wildwood, N. J., and Lake George, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Green, of 2306 North 2d street, have completed their vacation trip to the coast resorts.

Mr. Joseph Longstreet, of 2454 Kensington avenue, has returned to town after an interesting auto trip to Shamokin, Pa.

Mr. Thomas Wiley and family, of 2568 North 2d street, have returned to the city after an enjoyable tour to several Canadian points adjacent to Montreal.

Mr. Frank Dulon entertained a group of his friends Wednesday at his cottage, 27 Lafayette avenue, Atlantic City. An impromptu pinocchle contest was indulged in by Mrs. Dulon, Mr. Robert Miller, Mr. J. J. H. Miller, Mr. J. J. H. Miller, Mr. John Kelly, Mr. Charles Messenger and Mr. Thomas Hickey on the other. The decision of Mr. Bauers' team, Mr. Dulon will return to the city in a week or two.

Mr. Edward Haggert and his mother, Mrs. Anna Haggert, of 317 West Cumberland street, enjoyed a fine two weeks' trip to Scranton, Pa. Mr. Haggert is active in Spanish-American War Veteran circles and is highly thought of in the northeast.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Barcus and family, of 923 North 8th street, have returned from Atlantic City.

Dr. and Mrs. David J. Soltman and son Harold, of 87 North 4th street, are spending some time at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Grossman, of 550 North 2d street, have returned home from Atlantic City, where they have been spending the summer.

A grand autumn carnival at Allegheny avenue and Fracford street, will be held on September 26 to 28, by the Allegheny Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. Ernest Townsend, who spent the summer at Ocean City, has returned to his home, 412 Martin street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Homfeld, of 2122 Market street, returned today from Ocean City, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Ruth McGeever, of 6325 North 21st street, has returned from an extended stay in Florida, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Foulke and Miss Anna L. Foulke, of West Tullock street, are motoring through the White Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Coffin, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Hazel Coffin, and their son, Mr. Roy Coffin, of 507 Hansberry street, are staying for several weeks at Beach Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Horwitz and their family have returned from Haddon Heights, N. J., to 273 North Gratz street.

Mr. P. H. Altman and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Arndt have returned from Atlantic City to their home, 2208 West Tioga street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Benson, with their son and daughter, Mr. Edward Benson and Miss Marian Benson, have returned to their home on North Park avenue after spending the summer in Ocean City.

Miss Anne S. A. Bourke, of 1104 Highland avenue, has returned home after spending three weeks in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas and their sons, Mr. Joseph Thomas, Jr., and Mr. Dudley Thomas, of Rochelle avenue, will close their cottage at Ocean City during the week and return to Wissahickon.

Miss Lucy Fox, of 283 Rochelle avenue, Wissahickon, will leave, on September 12, for Wilmington, Del., where she will be the guest of Miss Elsie Beck, who will entertain a home party for a week.

WEDDINGS A PICTURESQUE home wedding took place on Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when Miss Rena E. Quentin Coles became the bride of Mr. William H. Dean, of Russell County, Va., at her home, 3715 Powelton avenue. The Rev. H. Alford Boggs, assisted by the bride's cousin, the Rev. Robert Wright, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Andrew Quentin, was gowned in soft ivory white muslin willow taffeta and wore a long tulle veil held to the head by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Elsie Peterson, wore a charming little frock of pale blue pussy willow taffeta and carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses, while the maid of honor, Miss Margaret Porley, was gowned in white muslin with low taffeta trimmed with pale pink and also carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

The small piece of the bride, Miss Rena Coles, 23, wore a dainty frock of white lace and carried an old-fashioned basket filled with white asters.

Mr. Charles Coles, a brother of the bride, acted as best man and Mr. Andrew Quentin, Jr., as usher. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dean left on their honeymoon, which will be spent in the North. Upon their return they will live at 3715 Powelton avenue, where they will be at home Saturdays in October.

Frankford Mrs. Thomas Carolan has been entertaining the following guests from Olney at her home at Pleasantville: Mrs. G. A. Baker and daughter, Miss Katherine Dadeker, Mrs. Michael Bennett and sons, Mr. John Bennett and Mr. George Bennett.

Mrs. Mary Lawrence, of 759 Cottage street, Holmesburg, is spending some time at Valley Forge, Pa.

Miss Bernice C. Cole, of Academy road, with her sisters, Miss Jane Cole and Miss Sarah Cole, will leave the latter part of this week for Chicago, Ill., where they will spend the winter with Miss Evelyn Renberger for two months.

PHINX CLUB CLOSES SUMMER HOME IN PARKLAND FOR SEASON

Tennis Tournament of Great Interest—Cynosure and Triangle Clubs Entertained by Miss McCutcheon—Other Affairs

THE summer season was brought to an auspicious close by the Phinx, at their country home, Awcomon Inn, Parkland, Pa., over the last week-end. A farewell reception was tendered Professor Harry J. Drumm in the form of a bal masque, which was held at the clubhouse on Saturday evening. Professor Drumm leaves shortly to resume his duties as instructor of economics at the Leland Stanford University. Sunday the party motored to Princeton, N. J., and dined at the College Inn as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Morley, of Washington street. On Monday the final of the tennis tournament for the Ketchikan trophy were held. The single championship was won by Mr. Joseph Champy, who will retain the cup for one year. The runner-up in this event was Mr. Edwin Tighe. In the mixed doubles Miss Ella Haslam and Mr. T. C. Dougherty defeated Mrs. J. McCullough and Mr. Paul V. Allen. Immediately after luncheon the party canoed to Hulmeville, and were entertained at the La Grangers' Club. On Monday evening the Awcomon Inn Club entertained with an impromptu vaudeville concert and musicale. Among those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Phinx over the week-end were Miss Elsie Kertz, Miss Dorothy Manning, Miss Nattie King, Miss Irene Manning, Miss Mae Bouton and Miss Lillian Spielner, Professor Drumm, Mr. Joseph Champy, Mr. Edwin Tighe, Mr. T. C. Dougherty, Dr. Ralph Diehm, Mrs. James P. McNulty and Mr. Paul V. Allen.

The girls of the Cynosure Club and the boys of the Triangle Club held a party Saturday night at the home of Miss Marie McCutcheon, 6011 Larchwood avenue, West Philadelphia. Among those present were Miss Ada Harkness, Miss Mary Flood, Miss Florence Mann, Miss Marie McCutcheon, Miss Etta Slupha, Miss Beatrice Harkness, Miss Marie Klaus, Miss Irma Clog, Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon, Jr., Mrs. M. M. Chamberlain, Mr. Frank Tighe, Mr. Joseph Montague, Mr. John McTamney, Mr. Thomas McBride, Mr. Joseph Mooney, Mr. John Walsh, Mr. Thomas McElvaine and Mr. Thomas McElvaine.

Mr. and Mrs. William Armstrong, of 3512 Baring street, gave an at home and dined on Friday. Among those present were Miss Gertrude Smith, Miss Elizabeth Betz, Miss Lillian Clemmer, Miss M. Shields, Miss Florence Bender, Miss Agnes Donahue, Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, Miss E. Maurer, Mr. K. Roberts, Mr. R. Allen, Mr. J. Kane, Mr. P. Devine, Mr. R. Bailey, Mr. S. Gegan, Mr. J. Musselman and Mr. B. Harper. Miss Fitzgerald rendered several solos, and Miss Maurer accompanied on the piano.

The annual watermelon party and entertainment of the Madonna Catholic Club was given last week.

Il Circolo di San' Agnese (Young Ladies' Guild of the Madonna Club) was well represented.

The program for the evening included musical selections, songs, recitations, dancing and games, in which the members, and their friends shared.

This is but a forerunner of the season, which will comprise entertainments, lectures, debates, essay contests, pool, checker and pinocchle tournaments and athletics in every branch.

There will be a vaudeville entertainment and dance given in Lyric Hall, 928 South 6th street, on October 1.

The committee in charge of the affair is headed by Mr. George Bonner, director; Mr. Leonard Gabriel, Mr. Anthony Maglietta; Mr. Salvatore Ricciardi, Mr. Nicholas Marasco and Mr. Joseph A. Lombardi, secretary.

Delaware County Dr. J. Albert Potter has returned to Strath Haven Inn, Swarthmore, after a ten days' trip to Bermuda.

Mrs. Howard Mattee, of Swarthmore, has moved into the Underwood house on Park avenue, Swarthmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mowby, of Swarthmore, returned today from a motor trip to Kittery Point, Me.

The alumni of the Thorsdale School will hold a reunion at the Eastern School at Glen Mills on September 18. Among those who will give addresses are Professor Crosley Pyle, Professor Harry M. Hipple, of Haddonfield, N. J.; Professor Charles H. Von Tagen, and Professor F. H. Nelbeker. The committee in charge is made up of Professor R. Cliff Cheney, Professor Newlin Mendenhall and Charles I. Cronin.

Girard Farms Dr. and Mrs. John V. McAlpine, U. S. N., who, with their little son, John, spent the summer months in the Allegheny Mountains, have returned to the city and opened their home at 2125 Ritner street.

Miss May Furey, Miss Anna Furey and Miss Catherine Furey have closed their cottage at Wildwood, where they have spent the summer, and returned to their home at 2501 South Cleveland Terrace.

Wilmington Mr. and Mrs. J. Monteth Jackson have returned from a trip to Cape May, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Garrett and family, who spent August at Lake Pyramid, in the Adirondacks, returned home a few days ago.

Mrs. Florence Hayward Hillis and daughter, Miss Katharine Hillis, have returned from a six weeks' trip to the Panama-Pacific and San Diego Expositions.

Mr. and Mrs. William Winder Laird and their children left for Hot Springs, Va., on Saturday, to stay a fortnight.

Mrs. Willard Hall Porter and Miss Annie A. Porter are staying at their farm, near Centreville, until October.

North Philadelphia Mr. and Mrs. Michael Green, of 2306 North 2d street, have completed their vacation trip to the coast resorts.

Mr. Joseph Longstreet, of 2454 Kensington avenue, has returned to town after an interesting auto trip to Shamokin, Pa.

Mr. Thomas Wiley and family, of 2568 North 2d street, have returned to the city after an enjoyable tour to several Canadian points adjacent to Montreal.

Mr. Frank Dulon entertained a group of his friends Wednesday at his cottage, 27 Lafayette avenue, Atlantic City. An impromptu pinocchle contest was indulged in by Mrs. Dulon, Mr. Robert Miller, Mr. J. J. H. Miller, Mr. J. J. H. Miller, Mr. John Kelly, Mr. Charles Messenger and Mr. Thomas Hickey on the other. The decision of Mr. Bauers' team, Mr. Dulon will return to the city in a week or two.

Mr. Edward Haggert and his mother, Mrs. Anna Haggert, of 317 West Cumberland street, enjoyed a fine two weeks' trip to Scranton, Pa. Mr. Haggert is active in Spanish-American War Veteran circles and is highly thought of in the northeast.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Barcus and family, of 923 North 8th street, have returned from Atlantic City.

Dr. and Mrs. David J. Soltman and son Harold, of 87 North 4th street, are spending some time at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Grossman, of 550 North 2d street, have returned home from Atlantic City, where they have been spending the summer.

A grand autumn carnival at Allegheny avenue and Fracford street, will be held on September 26 to 28, by the Allegheny Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. Ernest Townsend, who spent the summer at Ocean City, has returned to his home, 412 Martin street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Homfeld, of 2122 Market street, returned today from Ocean City, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Ruth McGeever, of 6325 North 21st street, has returned from an extended stay in Florida, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Foulke and Miss Anna L. Foulke, of West Tullock street, are motoring through the White Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Coffin, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Hazel Coffin, and their son, Mr. Roy Coffin, of 507 Hansberry street, are staying for several weeks at Beach Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Horwitz and their family have returned from Haddon Heights, N. J., to 273 North Gratz street.

Mr. P. H. Altman and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Arndt have returned from Atlantic City to their home, 2208 West Tioga street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Benson, with their son and daughter, Mr. Edward Benson and Miss Marian Benson, have returned to their home on North Park avenue after spending the summer in Ocean City.

Miss Anne S. A. Bourke, of 1104 Highland avenue, has returned home after spending three weeks in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas and their sons, Mr. Joseph Thomas, Jr., and Mr. Dudley Thomas, of Rochelle avenue, will close their cottage at Ocean City during the week and return to Wissahickon.

Miss Lucy Fox, of 283 Rochelle avenue, Wissahickon, will leave, on September 12, for Wilmington, Del., where she will be the guest of Miss Elsie Beck, who will entertain a home party for a week.

PHINX CLUB CLOSES SUMMER HOME IN PARKLAND FOR SEASON

Tennis Tournament of Great Interest—Cynosure and Triangle Clubs Entertained by Miss McCutcheon—Other Affairs

THE summer season was brought to an auspicious close by the Phinx, at their country home, Awcomon Inn, Parkland, Pa., over the last week-end. A farewell reception was tendered Professor Harry J. Drumm in the form of a bal masque, which was held at the clubhouse on Saturday evening. Professor Drumm leaves shortly to resume his duties as instructor of economics at the Leland Stanford University. Sunday the party motored to Princeton, N. J., and dined at the College Inn as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Morley, of Washington street. On Monday the final of the tennis tournament for the Ketchikan trophy were held. The single championship was won by Mr. Joseph Champy, who will retain the cup for one year. The runner-up in this event was Mr. Edwin Tighe. In the mixed doubles Miss Ella Haslam and Mr. T. C. Dougherty defeated Mrs. J. McCullough and Mr. Paul V. Allen. Immediately after luncheon the party canoed to Hulmeville, and were entertained at the La Grangers' Club. On Monday evening the Awcomon Inn Club entertained with an impromptu vaudeville concert and musicale. Among those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Phinx over the week-end were Miss Elsie Kertz, Miss Dorothy Manning, Miss Nattie King, Miss Irene Manning, Miss Mae Bouton and Miss Lillian Spielner, Professor Drumm, Mr. Joseph Champy, Mr. Edwin Tighe, Mr. T. C. Dougherty, Dr. Ralph Diehm, Mrs. James P. McNulty and Mr. Paul V. Allen.

The girls of the Cynosure Club and the boys of the Triangle Club held a party Saturday night at the home of Miss Marie McCutcheon, 6011 Larchwood avenue, West Philadelphia. Among those present were Miss Ada Harkness, Miss Mary Flood, Miss Florence Mann, Miss Marie McCutcheon, Miss Etta Slupha, Miss Beatrice Harkness, Miss Marie Klaus, Miss Irma Clog, Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon, Jr., Mrs. M. M. Chamberlain, Mr. Frank Tighe, Mr. Joseph Montague, Mr. John McTamney, Mr. Thomas McBride, Mr. Joseph Mooney, Mr. John Walsh, Mr. Thomas McElvaine and Mr. Thomas McElvaine.

Mr. and Mrs. William Armstrong, of 3512 Baring street, gave an at home and dined on Friday. Among those present were Miss Gertrude Smith, Miss Elizabeth Betz, Miss Lillian Clemmer, Miss M. Shields, Miss Florence Bender, Miss Agnes Donahue, Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, Miss E. Maurer, Mr. K. Roberts, Mr. R. Allen, Mr. J. Kane, Mr. P. Devine,